

Regarding your request to allow increased surveillance in VoIP and Broadband communications: I believe the primary function of the FCC is to regulate communications. The area of surveillance seems to be on the very edge of your domain of responsibility. Of course, I clearly do not support this initiative as an aside. It's an unnecessary intrusion of privacy that I do not accept and will work to fight against if passed.